HONGKONG, JUNE 9TH, 1905.

APPENDED TO THE REGISTER-GENERAL'S REPORT for last year is a special report on the subject of securing more reliable returns of the real causes of death and furnishing medical aid to the poorer classes of the Colony. The report has special reference to a scheme of the Colonial Surgeon, which has not been published and with the details of which we are unacquainted. Apparently Dr. ARNOLD has contemplated the introduction of some system by which the causes of all deaths should be certified by properly qualified medical officers or practitioners. Mr. STEWART LOCKHART points out, however, that the Chinese as a whole are not in favour of Western medical methods and that they would offer strong opposition to any system of improved registration of the cause of death which would necessitate anything in the nature of an invasion of the privacy of Chinese domestic life. If properly carried out, the Registrar-General's system does not see how interference with Chinese domestic life can be avoided, and that such interference would, in his opinion, only tend to intensify the prejudice existing among the Chinese against Western methods, and so far from succeeding in accomplishing its object, would almost certainly defeat its own end. In this we are inclined to agree with the Registrar-General, and think that while the Chinese should be encouraged to procure proper certificates of death anything in the form of compulsion ought to be avoided. If steps were taken to place qualified medical assistance within easy reach of the Chinese population it would be largely avoided, and in a constantly increasing degree, and this would naturally lead to more reliable returns of the real causes of death in a great number of cases. The first step, therefore, must be to bring Western medicine to the doors of the Chinese.

The Registrar-General suggests that as a preliminary measure two dispensaries should be established, one in Victoria and one in Kowloon, which should be in charge of licentiates of the Chinese College of Medicine, that drugs and medicines be distributed free of charge, and that medical advice be given gratis at the dispensaries to the poor, in addition to giving medical advice, dispensing medicines, and treating patients at the dispensaries, the licentiates should be without fee all cases where their services may be required, and that they should give certificates of death free of charge in all cases in which they can certify to the cause of death. This seems a feasible and inexpensive scheme and one which might advantageously be given a trial.

There is one point in the report, however, to which exception must be taken. Mr.

STEWART LOCKHART thinks the Government is bound to help the Chinese in this direction, "for the present medical service costs the Colony in round figures about $40,000 a year, and the Chinese who as interpreters contribute the larger portion of that sum derive comparatively small benefit from that service." This is altogether a misapprehension. In the medical service as at present organised there is no question of taking the money of Chinese to provide medical attendance for Europeans. The Colonial Surgeon is retained as the principal guardian of the public health, and it is as much to the interest of the Chinese as of any other class of the community—indeed more so, seeing that they are the most numerous and the most exposed to insanitary conditions—that the Colony should be guarded, so far as it can be, by an efficient medical staff, against any invasion of epidemic disease. The Colonial Surgeon also attends certain classes of Government officials (including Chinese if they choose to avail of his services), but as medical attendance is included in their contracts the charge properly falls on the community at large. The Civil Hospital, again, exists as much for the benefit of the Chinese as for that of any other section of the community, and, as a matter of fact, dequoting private paying patients, there were fewer European than Chinese treated there in 1891. As to the Government servants treated as patients in the hospital, it is to the common interest that the service should be provided with proper medical attendance and hospital accommodation, and no question of advantage to particular nationalities can arise on this point. Mr. STEWART LOCKHART probably did not weigh his words very carefully when he peached them, nor does he definitely allege any grievance on the part of the Chinese, but it is from such thoughtless statements that artificial grievances are often manufactured, and responsible officials should be careful in what they say.

S.S. "RADNOE" ON FIRE.
The Radnoe, a Yokohama mail, which left Hongkong on 27th April, was discovered to be on fire at Port Said. The steamer was damaged and the fire extinguished. The cargo is being damaged.

DILOXALTY IN DUBLIN.
The Dublin Corporation has received a congratulatory address from His Majesty the Queen and T.R.B. the Prince and Princess of Wales on the approaching marriage of the Duke of York and the Princess Mary.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND AND THE SILVER QUESTION.
President Cleveland has informed the Press that Congress will not be summoned before the beginning of September unless circumstances call for an earlier meeting. Meanwhile, the nation must consider for itself the merits of the financial policy of compelling the purchase of a silver dollar with gold. A continuance of this operation, he considers, will endanger the country's welfare.

OCCASIONAL NOTES.
At the meeting of the Legislative Council the other day the Registrar-General told Mr. Whithead that for many years past there had been a steady increase in the number of deaths simply figures, but reports to the Registrar-General, as a good deal of interest attaches to the Society at present it would be useful if Mr. Whithead could state whether these reports are accurate or not, or whether they may be partly true and partly false. Mr. Whithead said they are not to be found in the Gazette, I think.

Speaking of the Legislative Council, Dr. Ho said he is to be congratulated on his speech on the Po Lung Kung Ordinances. It is not often that the proceedings of the Council are followed by anything in the way of a speech, but Mr. Whithead's speech was a very good one, and it was a pleasure to hear him speak. He said that the Council is a very important body, and that the members should be careful in what they say.

Some expenditure on good education seems to be inevitable now that the Secretary of Education has been appointed. It is to be hoped the new members will do their best to improve the education of the Colony. A good deal has been done in getting the proposed outlay reduced to $140,000, but it is not yet known whether the Government will agree to it.

The London Lyric Company commenced their season to-morrow night, "On the Flat." Special notice will be run by the Lyric Co. after the performance for the convenience of Peak residents.

The following appeared in the Runyon Gazette:—"In writing a few months since of past ages, I have written a few lines about the history of the Colony. This is now being made by the Registrar-General, and it is a very interesting and useful work. Up to the 28th ult. we learn from the Star that the Princess Alice, a very large and powerful ship, has been wrecked on the coast of the United States. The ship was carrying a large number of passengers, and it is a very good thing that the passengers were saved.
